

COVID Commons

Users upload only random numbers to a common backend after receiving permission from a local authority. No personally-identifiable information is required for exposure notifications to work.

figure by CoVista group at University of California, Berkeley. covista.org

